Academic Year: 2020-2021

DEPARTMENT OF D.VOC.

Course: Diploma in Fin-Tech / Banking and Financial Services

Report

The college has introduced various diploma courses in the academic year 2020-21, to promote skills based education, under the Department of D.Voc. The college has designed various diploma courses according to the needs of place and change in requirements of industry and society. To fulfil the need of skills based education, to develop employability, entrepreneurship skills and get skilled manpower, the college has introduced diploma course in Fin-Tech/Financial Technology/Service, and conducting it effectively. It has been duly approved by Govt. of Maharashtra, and NSQF UGC vide notification dated 23 September 2020. The syllabus for the course is designed by the subject expertise and approved by the Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune.

In the commencement of the academic year, the teaching plan is designed following CBCS 2019 pattern by the faculty members and executed in the whole year. There are 31 students admitted to the course. Theory and practical lectures were held in online mode using Google meet/ Zoom Cloud applications. The Department of D.Voc also made a Memorandum of Understanding with a private company called MPFI, Project Consultancy Pvt. Ltd. (MPFI), to get practical experience, and to give students hands on training and get placed. To give more knowledge about the field, the department organised guest lecture of field expert.

The result of planning, execution, and use of effective teaching methods all 31(100 %) students completed the course successfully, and four of them are working with the MPFI Project Consultancy Pvt. Ltd., in the field. The course is started and ran successfully, under the guidance of Hon. Principal, Dr. Sharmila R. Chaudhari, Vice-Principal and D. Voc co-ordinator, Dr. Pravin Cholake and Vice-Principal, Dr. Mahendra Avaghade.
